December Nomination

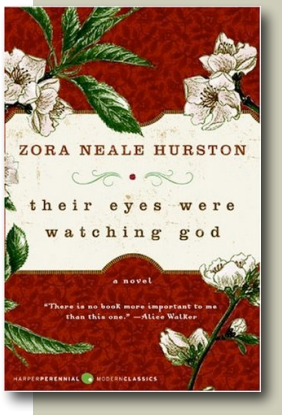
Each month Mocha Girls Read members select one book to nominate for the book of the month. To make the nomination process easier, we will give you a theme for the upcoming month. This way we can mix up the genre, authors, and themes. All you have to do is add your monthly book nomination to the site from 11/5/2018 to 11/11/2018. Then from 11/12/2018 to 11/18/2018 the polls will be open for voting. The book with most votes wins! The winner will be announced on 11/19/2018.

Theme for December: "2018 Award Winners"

(Any book that won a bookish award this year.)

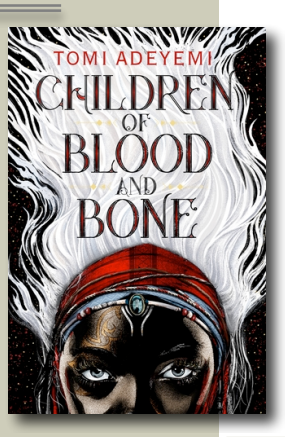
Remember one nomination and three votes per person.

Our thoughts on...



Mocha Girl Maya: CLASSIC! It was great to read this book for a second time. The first time I read it I was in high school and did not understand it. Zora Neal Hurston did a great job telling the story of Janie and the men in her life. The dialect was not always clear, but I can understand why the author wrote it that way because of the time period. Great piece of history and glad I took the time to read it again.

Mocha Girl Donna: This is now one of my favorite books. I absolutely loved it and was so inspired by Janie and Tea Cake's love.



Mocha Girl Monica: This book y'all! I am blown away by the fact that this is Tomi Adyemi's debut novel. This book is everything that I could ask for in a story and left me desperately wanting more.

Mocha Girl Brandi: I loved so many of the characters, the world, the magic system, the pacing and the way the characters and their relationships with each other developed. There's a little insta love but I rolled with it because the book, overall, is amazing! I went back and forth between the ebook, audiobook and physical copy depending on which format was easier for me to read at the time. The voice actress in the audiobook did an incredible job! I can't wait for book two to come out!

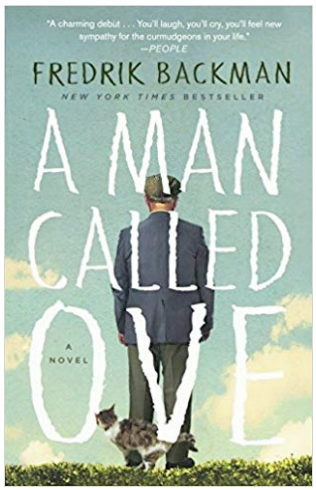
November's Book of the Month



A grumpy yet loveable man finds his solitary world turned on its head when a boisterous young family moves in next door.

Meet Ove. He's a curmudgeon, the kind of man who points at people he dislikes as if they were burglars caught outside his bedroom window. He has staunch principles, strict routines, and a short fuse. People call him the bitter neighbor from hell, but must Ove be bitter just because he doesn't walk around with a smile plastered to his face all the time?

Behind the cranky exterior there is a story and a sadness. So when one November morning a chatty young couple with two chatty young daughters move in next door and accidentally flatten Ove's mailbox, it is the lead-in to a comical and heartwarming tale of unkempt cats, unexpected friendship, and the ancient art of backing up a U-Haul. All of which will change one cranky old man and a local residents' association to their very foundations.
