April Nomination

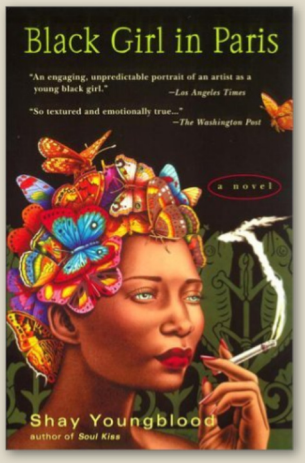
Each month Mocha Girls Read members select one book to nominate for the book of the month. To make the nomination process easier, we will give you a theme for the upcoming month. This way we can mix up the genre, authors, and themes. All you have to do is add your monthly book nomination to the site from 3/4/2019 to 3/10/2019. Then from 3/11/2019 to 3/17/2019 the polls will be open for voting. The book with most votes wins! The winner will be announced on 3/18/2019.

Theme for March: "Cli - Fi"

(Any fiction book about extreme climate or global warming.)

Remember one nomination and three votes per person.

Mocha Girls Read and Review



Mocha Girl Katrina: I really enjoyed this book, it was really different from the I've read in the past. I really enjoyed Eden the main character of the story, she was so courageous to go to Paris with almost nothing. Great read!

Mocha Girl Andrea: One of my favorite works of fiction. Got really mad when the book ended.

Mocha Girl Vivian: 3.5 star read.

Mocha Girl Jeneen: I can't find the words right now. So many thoughts and emotions to sift through.

Mocha Girl Maya: 'There are truths we face and truths we ignore". This book read like a casual conversation. She explained where she is from and what she went through to become the person she is. I hope she writes a follow up in years to come.

Mocha Girl Classy: I did not want this book to end. Michelle's story is encouraging and evolving. Her love for family, children and promotion of girls is heart-warming. I will read this book again.

March Book of the Month

Like Water for Chocolate by Laura Esquivel

Earthy, magical, and utterly charming, this tale of family life in turn-of-the-century Mexico became a best-selling phenomenon with its winning blend of poignant romance and bittersweet wit.

The number one bestseller in Mexico and America for almost two years, and subsequently a bestseller around the world, Like Water For Chocolate is a romantic, poignant tale, touched with moments of magic, graphic earthiness, bittersweet wit - and recipes.

A sumptuous feast of a novel, it relates the bizarre history of the all-female De La Garza family. Tita, the youngest daughter of the house, has been forbidden to marry, condemned by Mexican tradition to look after her mother until she dies. But Tita falls in love with Pedro, and he is seduced by the magical food she cooks. In desperation, Pedro marries her sister Rosaura so that he can stay close to her, so that Tita and Pedro are forced to circle each other in unconsummated passion. Only a freakish chain of tragedies, bad luck and fate finally reunite them against all the odds.
